

HARRIS STARTS HUNGER STRIKE; HE GETS 18 MONTHS; BARTS 18 MO., TOO

Harris Hits Prison Set-up

by HARRY B. WEBBER

Allen Harris immediately began a hunger strike Wednesday afternoon after he had been sentenced to an 18-month imprisonment at Caldwell by Judge Dallas Flanagan on charges of false testimony in connection with his statement last spring that he graduated from University of Chicago Law School.

Almost at the same time Detectives Charles A. Barts of Newark, was sentenced across the hall from Harris in Judge Brennan's court to 18 months in Caldwell after Barts, however, is appealing his conviction and therefore was freed in $2500 bail pending the appeal. He returned to Newark.

Of the two sentences, Harris' was the most sensational, especially in view of a statement he made to the Herald News five minutes before he was sentenced.

"I expect the limit," Harris said. "But I ate my last meal this morning. I will refuse to eat another and there are no provisions at Caldwell to force me to eat."

"I am not doing this for publicity. Some one has to force attention to the people to eat or worse from which they are suffering and that is what I am doing. All I care about in normal life is sustenance. All other things that people bathe, for money, cars and so on. I have been thinking I could long ago have sold the money of the Equality League for safer things and sell out as other organizations. But every penny we have received goes for the work of the project."

"Among the things I must call attention to are the prison conditions in Essex County."

At Newark Street jail the Negroes and the white prisoners are not separated.

"All I can tell you is the proportion of Negroes to whites is 8 to 1 and therefore there can be little segregation there. However, at Caldwell there are other evils. For instance, a doctor visits Caldwell only once a day and no hospital facilities. It has no facilities for forcing me to eat food."

"I have advised many local Negro leaders of these conditions but they say it is too hot to handle. There are no shortage of guards at Caldwell. I don't see why our politicians don't get some of their own appointed."

"If Negroes are eight times more than the white prisoners at Caldwell means that over eight times the number of whites in Essex County, although they are only one tenth of the population, I don't believe they do."

"They can't imprison my body but my mind."

"When I left Caldwell only a month or so ago the warden said he hoped I would not return because I called attention to certain rights prisoners have."

Harris said he had been in jail down while awaiting sentence and he and Barts several times passed each other. With Barts were his counsel and friends from New York.

Barts counsel pointed out to the court that Barts was convicted on the allegations of a prostitute. He said the evidence that he had accepted $1,000 bribery from Marion Greenberg and Joe Waters was false.

At the arraignment the court then set aside the guilty verdict. This motion was denied by Judge Brennan.

Booth Renters Are Employees

TRENTON—Beauty shop owners in the state are the employers of all beauty culture operators in their shops and booth renters can no longer be independent contractors, but are shop employees.

Misinterpretation of Section 23 of the Rules of the State Board of Beauty Culture has caused some beauty shop owners to treat booth renters as independent contractors when the Labor Department, the UCC and Federal Social Security says they are not. Therefore the Beauty Board last week eliminated Section 23 of the law relating to booth renting, to halt confusion.

Shops must have one licensed manager-operator in charge at all times. Shop owners may make any arrangements with booth renters or commissions to employees, including booth renters. Owners are liable for all money handled in their shops.

Owners must comply with Labor Law working conditions and wages, unemployment insurance payments of 10%, including booth renters, while night and day in the laboratories of the National Foundation supported research workers fight on... fight on so that a full offensive against the disease may be developed.

Beauty shop owners meet Wednesday evening, Jan. 19th at 227 West Kinney street to discuss this new arrangement and be addressed by Mrs. Benson of St. Louis, Mrs. C. G. Johnson of Jersey City.

6 Youths Test Bayonne Skating Rink Race Bias

BAYONNE — Six teen-age youths, daughters and sons of prominent Jersey City and Bayonne families, braved insult and ejection Saturday night at the Boulevard Arena Skating rink in the Jersey City-Bayonne line to begin test continuous exclusion of Negroes there over a two year period.

Nothing unusual happened as the youths go into the line and entered the rink at 7:30 p.m. On the scene to hear testimony were the Rev. Dr. E. H. Head, state NAACP head, Rudolph Wheeler, YMCA executive, Richard L. Martin of the N. J. Commission on Condition of the Urban Colored Population, and two Herald News reporters.

The six entered alone while others, including Negroes were ejected. When asked if they did not fit Wheeler followed them in. He neither was ejected. Once inside he contacted each of the six and found that four of them were on the floor skating while the other two were waiting to be fitted for skates.

Wheeler continued on the scene inside the rink, awaiting some possible incident but none had taken place during that time.

"The Negroes have been waging a one-man fight against bias for some time, told some of his experiences while waiting in line. He said one night he held up admissions of Negroes to the place, over an hour because he was refused admission on the grounds that the rink was filled, but waited in line, anyhow. Other times he entered and secured skates but attendants would contact him, thinking he was a Negro skater seemingly to over Taliferro's feet as three or four others also "accidentally" tripped at the same time, making it appear that Taliferro was disorderly. The rink ejected on those false grounds."

"I have advised many local Negro leaders of these conditions but they say it is too hot to handle. There are no shortage of guards at Caldwell. I don't see why our politicians don't get some of their own appointed."

"If Negroes are eight times more than the white prisoners at Caldwell means that over eight times the number of whites in Essex County, although they are only one tenth of the population, I don't believe they do."

One of the best known War Bond workers in the South is Graham W. Jackson, Naval Chief specialist attached to the Recruiting Office in Atlanta. An entertainer before the war, Chief Jackson has been twice honored by the Treasury for "distinguished services rendered in behalf of the War Savings Program."

Among his cherished possessions is an autographed photograph of President and Mrs. Roosevelt, given him after one of his early performances at the White House.

He is shown here before his piano, "ready to go to town," for the Fourth War Loan.

March Of Dimes Appeals To All

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has begun its eleventh annual appeal for funds from all Americans, Negro and white, with which to carry on the people's fight against infantile paralysis.

The dimes and dollars of all of us make possible the continuance of this vital effort to safeguard our national health. And the health of your neighbors and their children.

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is a integral part of the national pattern and that the nation's physical well-being depends directly upon the physical well-being of its nationals.

Under arrest by Sgt. Harry Stotmeister and Detectives Charles Foster and Frank Walker, the Negroes, with 18 others, were arrested at 77 Hayes street; Leonard Kelly, 19, of 310 West Kinney street; and Mercer Walker, 16 of Hayes street, who police said, was the driver of the auto which was driving on 127 William street and Mica Marion Davis, 16, of 21 Waverly avenue, were held for investigation.

The auto, owned by Charles Simmons of 246 Haledon street, East Orange, and reported stolen from Howard street and Springfield avenue, was seen by the police at Clinton avenue and Elizabeth avenue, where police said, refused to stop and shot ahead of the police car.

Police said the auto sidewiped a parked car in front of 116 Sherman street. Walker fired two shots and the auto crashed into a parked car at 119 Sherman street. The couple fled, but were rounded up after a short chase.

By contributing to this cause of the people, Negro and white, we all can bring immeasurably closer the day when the children's victory will be secured.

5 Youths Steal Car Of Chas. Simmons, Chased, Arrested

Five teen-age youngsters, two of them girls, were arrested early Wednesday night in a stolen car after a half-mile chase from Clinton and Elizabeth avenues to Sherman street, in which two shots were fired by detectives.

The dimes and dollars of all of us make possible the continuance of this vital effort to safeguard our national health. And the health of your neighbors and their children.

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis — infinite paroxysm — strikes individually, sectionally or nationally. But whichever the manner of its striking, it always leaves a wake of destruction.

8 Groups Oppose Project

Here are the groups opposing the proposed 150-unit USHA project and the reasons for their opposition:

1. The Newark N.A.A.C.P. which wants the project but only if integrated.
2. The Baptist Ministers Conference which wants the project integrated but does not want it located in the Raymond boulevard and Chapel street location, as that is too near the swampy meadows.
3. The Ironbound Manufacturers' Association which opposes the project because of its invasion into a heavily industrial district and because of alleged lack of school facilities for Negro children.

and because

days before new ones are put up.

5. The Penn Savings and Loan Association, because it feels a "Negro" project will reduce property values in the Ironbound.

6. The N. J. Commission on Condition of the Urban Colored Population which wants the project but opposes the "Negro only" label.

7. Negro Affairs, Inc., which opposes location and racial label and questions if $600,000 is enough for a decent 150-unit project.

8. The N. J. Herald News which opposes the proposed segregation of the project.

Brings Hit-Run Driver To Justice

(An Editorial)

Mr. Preasley who operates a hotbox stand at South Orange Avenue and Wickliffe Street caused the capture of a hit-run driver last week who had run a woman down, stopped to pick her up, and then dumped the injured woman in a nearby block.

The woman was hit on South Orange Avenue near Wickliffe about 9:30 P. M. Friday.

Preasley saw the accident and took the license number of the car. The driver acted like a victim to the hospital. Later Preasley called City Hospital to see if the man had brought the woman into the accident. City Hospital replied that they had received a call to pick up a woman who had been hit a few blocks from Wickliffe.

Preasley returned the license number over to police and the driver was arrested and given a hearing on the charge.

Tucker Revises Hayes Blast

A confused pattern of protests over the new 150-unit Federal Housing Project featured by misunderstandings and lack of technical facts on the part of critics began to clear up Wednesday morning as the following developments took place:

Charles Ascher of the Newark Housing Authority, 2 Park units of 80 instances for instance, was agreed to be made to the war effort. It is the policy of the national agency to let local authorities determine the pattern of occupancy.

2. Frank B. Wenzel, executive of the Newark N.A.A.C.P., following

Ascher's comment, said:

"The policy of the Newark Housing Authority has been and will continue to be, I am sure, to house those in the greatest need of housing, when it comes to tenancy selection for the new housing project we will select eligible war-workers in accordance with this policy. If conditions are as they are now it is altogether probable that most of the Negroes selected, will be Negroes. However, if conditions are as they are now it is also possible that there are families of White war workers in greater need than families of Negro war workers, then they will be selected. Need will continue to be the determining factor."

3. Roger B. Tucker, president of Negro Affairs, Inc., made this statement:

"I still believe that the Rev. W. P. Hayes and others on the N.H.A. should have expressed themselves more fully and more clearly before the N.H.A. Housing Project was made."

"The criticism of the Newark Housing Authority was made by Rev. W. P. Hayes, N.H.A. chairman, and some people who did not have the facts,"

An Integrated Project Sought

by HARRY B. WEBBER

Across a long polished table in Newark Housing Authority headquarters at 57 Sussex avenue Saturday afternoon eight local and state Housing Authority officials, presided by the chairman, Rev. William P. Hayes, discussed the N.O.M. family Negro-labeled defense housing project with a Newark N.A.A.C.P. committee of six who protested against the N.H.A. accepting a segregated project.

After a two hour session, featured by lively exchanges of opinions, the statement for the N.H.A. to submit to the regional office of the U.S.H.A. in New York:

Counsel then asked the court to set aside judgment on the verdict. This was also denied.

Counsel conferred with the court at length in chambers and at about noon Barto was sentenced to 18 months.

The court remarked that to sentence Barto had been "disagreeable but it had to be done."

"I must follow my conscience," the court stated.

Oliver Randolph, counsel for Harris also had made a plea to Judge John H. Magan in favor of Harris. Harris responded at about 11:30 a.m. His last words were in explanation of certain affairs in which he has been recently highlighted.

Harris denied he had "framed" Jim Kempton on a referee.

Urban Colored Population; Roger Tuckers of Negro Affairs, and Harry B. Webber, editor of the New Jersey Herald News.

Present at the meeting were Rev. Hayes, Frank Weinrich, executive director of NHA, Commissioners Carl Bacca and George W. Campbell, W. T. Vanderveen, Ironbound Housing Authority, Fred Collins assistant to Weinrich and Joseph Reilly, director of ice projects.

Rev. Hayes called the meeting after he had been accused at last week's NAACP meeting of accepting a project earmarked for segregated Negroes.

Rev. Hayes said he had not been asked to say anything at that time.

Rev. Hayes pointed out the NAACP had also slept the opening of all white USDA projects in Newark.

Mr. Vanderveen said he was not present at the meeting.

He said he had been following the project for Negroes ever since its inception. Members of the committee revealed that they regretted Hayes' objections had not been made public, before, so criticism of his apparent action could have been avoided.

"So Little Time"

Rev. Hayes revealed that the project had been decided upon at such a late date that the time had not been taken to publicize his objections.

Mr. Weinrich gave the history of the project and asserted at first that publicity about it had not included the term "Negro Project". Harry B. Webber said all the members had seen of the project had included the term Weinrich then explained how the project became possible, because of allocations and priorities released by the National Authority for Negroes only.

Race Designations Show

Other comments revealed that National authorities divided all housing into white, Negro, and white and colored needs. It was recalled that this project was the result of a housing survey made by Commissioners John A. Brady last year and given to the NHA.

The N. H. Urban League also supported the survey. The survey revealed the bad need of white housing both for colored and white, but more for colored. On the basis of that report the project was decided upon by national officials.

This corrects one phase of last week's story on the issue. There is no report of a survey conducted by Brady and the Urban League. Actually the Brady report was not only on Negro but on white housing needs also and the Urban League aid in the report was also presumably inter-racial. The National Housing Authority examined the report and decided to recognize Negro needs only.

This was the same fact highlighted in a statement by Rev. Hayes last week. He said it was made by NHA which marked the project Negro, but the National NAACP Committee, the Ironbound Manufacturers Association and the Real Estate Board.

Ironbound is worried over the possibility of surrounding Negroes in the ironbound area.

Hits Army J. C. On Italy Front

NEW YORK—Roi Ottley, Negro author of "New World's A Coming: Inside Black America," predicted Friday that after the war "10,000 Negroes" in America will not be content with a second-rate citizenship.

He was one of three authors who spoke at the first in the 1944 series of "Books and Authors" on the air, sponsored jointly by the New York Herald Tribune and the American Booksellers Association, which was held at the Astor. Mr. Ottley deplored what he called "stratification of 'Jim Crowism' all over the country by the Army, which segregates whites and Negroes."

"I regard to Italy," he said, "as we are not justified in saying that we are waging war in that country. We are fighting for the cause of an American brand of Fascism when they have to watch the segregation of Negro from white?"

"The colored people of the world are waging war in that country. They must do it themselves. If American Negroes are not getting democracy, how can American leaders give democracy to us?"

More than 60,000 Negroes were graduated from American universities and colleges in the last ten years, Mr. Ottley said, and are forming a nucleus of leadership for "the colored people, who are demanding their rights, who want to participate in American life."

NEW YORK—The first conviction in the city under the 10-year-old Civil Rights Law was handed down last week in General Sessions, sentence of 30 days in jail or $100 fine on Martin A. Nichols former assistant manager of the Hotel Knickerbocker, 120 W. 45th Street. Justices Nathan Perlman and William H. Northrop gave the sentence. Justice Alfred Burman dissenting.

Alvin Bowman, a Negro and international representative of the United Automobile Workers, CIO, charged that on March 23, 1943, he was denied accommodations at the hotel when he tried to register with six white, Union officials. It was brought out that even after another member of the party offered to share his room with Bowman, he was turned away. Nichols' defense was he was afraid "the embarrassment would cause Bowman by reason of Southerners being guests at the hotel."

When Nichols persisted in his stand, the entire party walked out of the hotel, even though two of the men had registered.

Mac Gordon, attorney for the Writers Defense League, who represented Bowman, said Bowman would sue the hotel. The judges are to be congratulated for their courageous stand he said.

In announcing Nichols' conviction of violating the State law which forbids hotels to deny privileges to persons because of color or race, Perlman said:

"Because of the fact he was an employee carrying out the wishes of the hotel management, we will impose a nominal fine, $100 or 30 days."

In Italy, in their regular releases, the NAACP learned through certain channels last week that the few Negroes serving in the 99th Squadron, in active combat duty, but that there was grave danger that these scenes would not be released through the regular newsreel companies. It was the feeling that All American Newsreel, a company catering to Negroes, would be the only ones who would give the shots of the 99th and that the millions of white Americans who attend the movies would never see pictures of the Negro aviators fighting the Nazis.

The reason we asked the 99th to continue its distribution is that the booklet seems to bear on the decision of the racial problem," said E. Z. Hale, USAF public director, when PM queried him about that. "It is not the USAF's place to decide the problem. It is not proper for us to attempt to take sides. The withdrawal of the book doesn't imply criticism of the pamphlet we simply don't want to put it in material of either side in the debate. It is not all right to distribute the pamphlet around here, but down South there's a lot of feeling on the matter."

YMCAs' Policy

The YMCA, associated to the rest of the U.S. by a loose confederation but not to the philosophy back of it, Eugene E. Barnett, general secretary of the National Council of the YMCA, said today:

"The YMCA has long-established policies of non-sectarian activity, to improve race relationships. Mr. Barnard, president of the USO, asked the YMCA not to distribute this material in USO clubs for the reason that literature which reflects racial segregation, which a portion of the public as controversial could not properly be distributed by the USO. Mr. Barnard submitted the matter to the executive committee of the USO which approved this view. Our position is that the YMCA discontinued distribution of the pamphlet in USO clubs.

"The YMCA continues to distribute the pamphlet to its regular clubs, and is fostering its use among its members."

These were the official versions of the banning of the Public Affairs pamphlet on race. They did not reflect the storm of protest PM learned arose at the YMCA when the request to ban the book was made.

(In P. M.)

Facts about mankind and the equality of the races apparently have been taught to Negroes who come to the USO centers for more than the standard coke and cake, PM learned today that The Races of Mankind, a popularly-written scientific statement by Columbia University anthropologist Ruth Benedict and Gene Waldfish, has been banned from USO centers as too "controversial."

The pamphlet was prepared for the Public Affairs Committee, a non-profit educational organization sponsored by the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation, a part of its policy "to present the facts on important social and economic issues." The facts about man's origin and makeup were prepared under the supervision of a committee of the American Assoc. of Scientific Workers, including, besides its authors, Prof. C. L. Mangelson, Prof. O. K. Koenig, psychologist, and Dr. Marion Smith, anthropologist, all of Columbia.

The ban came about in this way:

The YMCA, which is run through the Army and Navy Committee, 50,000 copies of the pamphlet in YMCA-operated USO units. Chester L. Barnard, who left the presidency of N. J. Bell Telephone to serve without compensation as USO press representative, came upon the pamphlet in a USO center.

He looked at this popularly-presented exposition of the basic facts about races which finds race prejudice "a natural human born disease caused by fear, got in touch with the YMCA and asked them to stop distributing it. He backed up his request shortly with action of the USO board. The pamphlet will not be used in USO clubs. The book was being paid for by YMCA funds, was banned.

A Better 21st Century

This booklet states some facts science has learned and verified about races showing the equality of all men, their likeness and their fundamental unity. It says that freedom from fear is the way to cure race prejudice, sums up constructive things to be done to combat it, urges the "education of the masses" for a better twenty-first century. It relates the need for racial understanding to the immediate experience of the United Nations.

The reason we asked the 99th to continue its distribution is that the booklet seems to bear on the decision of the racial problem," said E. Z. Hale, USAF public director, when PM queried him about that. "It is not the USAF's place to decide the problem. It is not proper for us to attempt to take sides. The withdrawal of the book doesn't imply criticism of the pamphlet we simply don't want to put it in material of either side in the debate. It is not all right to distribute the pamphlet around here, but down South there's a lot of feeling on the matter."

BE CONSIDERATE

Help that poor and wretched one who has made some mistakes. Don't tread him down beneath your feet. Lift him up for pity sakes. Speak a word of kindness. Why tear his soul apart? He is just as good as you are. Why not have a heart? We all make mistakes. Some are small. Why should we be so unmerciful? If one should have a fall, Lift him up with words of kindness.

Care for him on his weary way. Who can tell but that very one will prove a friend some day. So always be careful. For what you say or do, Because the other fellow has a feeling.

As far as me or you—There's never a sin so great That God will not forgive, So why not think of this? And let the other fellow live?

Sally's Chatterings

OUR GAL SALLY REALIZED... more forcibly than ever... the loneliness and hardship of war... when our mail brought a letter from Technical Sgt. Jimmie Vann... stationed somewhere in New Guinea... he said in part: "I HAD A V. N. M. FOR YOU... this is my second year in the jungle... so you see I am wondering if people still have fun on New Year's... or Xmas for that matter. One of the things in my outfit reads 'Happy New Year'... At that rate, I don't see we extend congratulations and a wish for happy moments to the Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Jenkins in the raising of their son, the lovely boy born to Madame Jenkins January 2nd...".

OH YES, AND JIMMIE SAID "I read in the fun you are having... the way of Sally's Chatterings... Your gal Sally wonders... it is really fun we are having... or just some way of trying to 'Be Merry with all our eyes'... we know that our boys are still being called to the field of battle... News comes that good-looking Rhodell Flemming has been transferred from Bainbridge, Md., to Florida and you are both wondering about Jessie Jones of Barclay Street... he is wearing the blue of the U. S. Navy... and handsome Carter Saunders came on furlough last from Great Lakes... the lad about town who sports the white carnation... Freddie Murphy went down to the draft board... only to receive rejection notice... Marie Goode... singer at Radio City... and charming brother, Eddie... Ham, breezing down from Canada Stewart... and took over the town...".

SO MUCH FOR THOSE AT WAR... Civilians still take time out for a bit of relaxation... and we find that Janet Beadle (expatriate) is having a great time after a very happy vacation in the southland with her people... The charming song thrush Gracie Smith gets a chance for change of scenery as well as big-time job... singing at Radio City... and we understand she's doing a great job thrilling the patrons with her lovely voice.
